The public debt was reduced $3,000,000 during the month of November.

The Democrats have not yet been able to figure out their profits in joining the solid South.

The electoral vote of New York was cast for Garfield, and poor Barnum was not around to cry "four."

Those who have been so industriously engaged in making cabinets for General Garfield may take a rest. He will do that piece of work himself, and will do it well.

The Beloit Free Press has pronounced for E. W. Keyes for United States Senator. In taking this course it represents the dominant sentiment of the Republican party in Rock county.

President-elect Garfield has four sons—Harry, aged 16, James, 14, Irving, 10, and Abram, 8, and a daughter, Mollie, aged 12. President Hayes, also, has four sons, the eldest of whom is about 22.

The female suffrage question will come up this winter in the Legislature for final consideration. There is no doubt that it will be defeated as the adoption of the resolution last winter was done in a spirit of playfulness.

Salvini, the eminent Italian tragedian, is playing to a large business in Philadelphia. He speaks his lines in Italian, while his support render them in English. As great as Salvini is, he can not master the English sufficiently well to use English lines.

The Democratic elector who was elected in Indiana through a blunder on the part of the Republicans, met with the Republican electors, and cast his vote for Garfield and Arthur. He did not wish to take advantage of the error, and therefore voted with the Republicans in carrying out the wishes of the people.

The people of the North have treated Judge Tourgee very generously. They have bought his "Fool's Errand" by the tens of thousands. They have, turned out en masse to hear him make political speeches, and notwithstanding all this, he proposes to go out lecturing. The people thought better of Judge Tourgee.

According to the report of the treasury department, there are in the hands of the people 343 millions of registered 4 and 4½ per cent bonds. The Southern States have only 11 millions; the Eastern States 61 millions; the Middle States 221 millions; the Western States 48 millions. Men hold 270 millions of the bonds, and women 72 millions.

The Madison Democrat says the friends of Myron McCord are confident that he will secure the speakership of the next Assembly. This is where the friends of McCord are mistaken. Four years ago McCord tried to defeat the Republican party. He was a Greenbacker then, and used his personal influence and the influence of his paper, to defeat the Republicans. These things are not forgotten, and in the face of the facts it is hardly possible that he will be elected speaker.

A correspondent of the Gazette, who is a strong supporter of the prohibition movement, writes us to the effect that the majority the amendment to the Kansas constitution received was more than 7,000, and that he learns that it was between 20,000 and 30,000. Our correspondent is mistaken in supposing that the prohibition amendment was adopted by that majority. The canvass of the votes as reported by telegraph, and which appeared in all the leading papers, showed a majority of about 7,000. We have not seen this contradicted.

A dispatch from Madison to the Chicago Journal says: "Rev. J. B. Pratt, who has been in the office of the superintendent of public instruction, as assistant for the past ten years, will be relieved January 1, by Prof. S. S. Rockwood, of the Whitewater normal school. Superintendent Whitford makes the change for political obligations to Professor Rockwood." This charge does Superintendent Whitford great injustice. There was no political bargain between Professors Whitford and Rockwood. There are some very substantial reasons why this change should have been made, and the strongest possible reasons why Mr. Pratt should vacate the position he has held so honorably for these many years. He is quite advanced in years, and is unfit for the work which the duties of assistant superintendent throw upon him. For several months past he has been unable to perform the duties of the office with that vigor and precision which formerly characterized his work. This is one of the grounds on which it was understood he was to vacate the office. The appointment of Professor Rockwood is one entirely fitting to be made. He is an excellent scholar, a vigorous worker, a first class educator, and thoroughly practical. He will fill the office well, and his service will prove of great importance to the educational interests of the State.

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION. The Evening Wisconsin has interviewed sixteen representative men in Milwaukee on the Senatorial question. Of this number six were outspoken for Sawyer for United States Senator, two pronounced for Keyes, one for ex-Governor Washburn, and the others refused to express an opinion. Mr. Ed. Sanderson, who so gallantly championed the cause of Matt Carpenter two years ago, is in favor of Mr. Sawyer. John Plunkinton who stands at the head of the representative business men of Milwaukee, is outspoken for Keyes. He thinks Keyes has done more for the party than any man who is opposed to him, and he knows no reason why he would not make a good Senator. Ex-Governor Ludington said he did not want to mix up with the Senatorial affair. He is opposed to Keyes, has no objection to Sawyer, and would not oppose Mr. Williams were he a candidate. Mr. Paschen favors Keyes first, for a good many reasons, and his second choice is Washburn. Mr. E. H. Broadhead, is for Washburn, but that is the best he can do on the Senatorial question. H. S. Benjamin, wants Sawyer elected, but has no objection to Keyes, but he thinks Sawyer would more truly represent the interests of the people than Keyes. Mayor Brown is in favor of Judge Dyer first, and as between Keyes and Sawyer he would take the latter.

ABOUT THE CIVIL SERVICE. The men who have the civil service question on the brain, have already commenced their operations against General Garfield. The election had barely past and the result made public, before Horace White, an other of the so-called civil service reformers, addressed a letter to the President-elect on that subject, and delivered it to him in person. General Garfield promised he would consider the matter in due time, and further than that declined to talk on the subject.

Next to President Hayes' civil service order No. 1, there is no greater political humbug in this country than the civil service movement prosecuted by Horace White, George William Curtis, and that class of impracticable men. They want to run the government on the principle that a ladies' sewing society would be managed. There are Miss Nancys in politics. They do not seem to comprehend the vast and wonderful machinery in this great government. They talk and write as if the government can be managed as easily and as correctly as some grammar school; and there is no departure from these rules by the government officials that does not shock the pretended modesty of these men. There is no doubt that there is room for improvement in our civil service. It is not perfect. No civil service in any country is perfect or can be perfect. The great point to be gained is honesty and efficiency in those men who are called to fill civil positions. If a man can do his duty in any civil position under the government, has ability for the place, and is honest and otherwise efficient—it makes no difference whether he has graduated from a college, or came from the farm or workshop. Practical men—honest men—are wanted, and as a rule the government gets these men to fill the civil positions.

These would-be civil service reformers who seem to be men of one idea, fail to show wherein the civil service is defective, and why there should be a change. If postmasters, revenue collectors, sub-treasurers, consuls, and so on, were dishonest, and defalcations were numerous and on the increase, there would be some need of a civil service reform. But where is there a government on the face of the earth managed with more economy and skill, than the United States? There was a time when defalcations were almost appalling in this country; but that time was when the Democratic party was in power, and when the moral senses of the office holders were blunted. With the administration of Lincoln, began reform. Losses to the government were remarkably small. They continued to decrease, and when General Grant had finished his eight years as President, the losses on a thousand dollars handled by the government, did not exceed 34 cents! Under Hayes, he losses have been still less, and on a thousand dollars, they have been even less than the eighth of one per cent! There is no business firm of any kind in the United States or in the world that can transact its business on such a grand scale of economy as this government. It is marvelous, and shows how perfect is the system of civil service in this country.

With these facts it is difficult to understand what more the civil service advocates want. They are on the war-path, however, and propose to make appeals to President Garfield for his aid in carrying out their pet and impracticable schemes. Garfield is a broad-minded man, is governed by common sense, thoroughly understands the needs of the government, and will take no wild steps in the attempt to reform the civil service. He will pay respectful attention to the political Nancys, but he will issue no civil service order after the fashion of No. 1.

The Revue Industrielle states that a German manufacturer is turning out over a ton a day of glucose made from old linen rags. These rags, which are composed of hard vegetable fibers, are treated with sulphuric acid, which converts them into dextrine. The latter product thus obtained undergoes a washing with milk of lime, and is then treated with a fresh supply of acid stronger than the former, when the mass is at once transformed and crystallizes into glucose of which "rich" confections and jellies may be made. The process is said to be a very cheap one, and the glucose chemically identified with grape sugar. A strong outcry, however, has arisen against the manufacture of grape sugar from rags, and the enterprise is understood to be in danger of being interfered with by the German Government.

THE TARIFF.

IT WILL COME UP AT AN EARLY DAY IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—It is probable that the early days of the session of the Senate will be taken up with a tariff discussion. The occasion will be the bill which passed the House toward the end of the last session, changing the rate of duty upon malt. The bill was reported from the Senate finance committee without amendment. In the Senate Mr. Beck prepared an amendment to reduce all duties which are now in excess of 50 per centum, and Mr. Whyte proposed another changing the duties upon sugar. These amendments open up the whole tariff question. The bill was made a special order for the second day of the next session.

PRESIDENT HAYES.

He is not a Candidate for the Ohio Senatorship.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 1.—The Herald's special says: "Private Daize wrote to President Hayes, stating that he had heard his name mentioned in connection with the Ohio Senatorship, and inquired if he was in the field. The President's reply was laconic. After the date and address it reads: 'No, B. H. Hayes.' The President has otherwise expressed himself that after the expiration of his term he permanently retires to private life at his home in Fremont, O."

GARFIELD'S HEALTH.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Dec. 1.—The Hon. Richard Smith, of the Gazette, who came back from Washington with President-elect Garfield, in an interview with the Times-Star to-day, made public some facts not heretofore known, regarding Garfield's physical condition and prospects. He says the general is in anything but good health, and will need careful nursing and long rest to bring him to his normal condition. He can not eat much or assimilate what he does eat, and without such a long stay his health may be seriously injured.

He says Garfield's Cabinet will be made up of the very best material. Sherman, he thinks, will be made Senator.

GEORGIA'S VOTE.

"Though Lost to Sight, to Memory Dear."

ATLANTA, Dec. 1.—The electoral vote of Georgia is probably lost to Hancock and English for the following reason: The revised statutes of the United States provide in section 135 that the electoral colleges of the several states shall meet on the first Wednesday of December and cast their votes. The Georgia code, sections 1312, provides that the governor shall notify the electors to meet at the capital on the first Monday of December to be ready on the Wednesday following to cast their votes. This the governor has done, but the electors have not met to-day or voted, and it is thought by leading officials and lawyers here that they have no right to meet and vote next Wednesday.

OBITUARY.

GALENA, Ill., Dec. 1.—Warren W. Huntington, postmaster of Galena, died at 3 o'clock this morning at his residence in this city, after a protracted and painful illness, caused by ulceration of the bowels. Deceased was born in Burlington, Vt., October 10, 1830, and was educated at Middlebury college. He entered a printing office in that village, of which the late H. Houghton, of this city, was proprietor. Wilbur F. Storey, of the Chicago Times, was a fellow workman, and Oliver Johnson, of the Christian Union, was foreman in the office at that time. Mr. Huntington came to Galena in 1851 and engaged with H. Houghton, his present employer, in the publication of the Galena Gazette. In 1861 he was appointed postmaster at Galena, by President Lincoln, and thereafter by President Johnson, and Grant, retaining the office until 1872, when he was appointed special agent of the postoffice department. He continued in this capacity until 1877, when he was again appointed postmaster at Galena by President Hayes.

THE PASSENGER WAR.

Getting Very Interesting For Travelers.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—The Wabash railway yesterday reduced the rates from Chicago to Kansas City to $3, the rate by that road heretofore being $4. There are limited rebate tickets, the company requiring passengers to deposit $10, and giving them a rebate order on its agent at Kansas City for $7. The officials of the Wabash here claim that this reduction is simply the $1 less than is charged by any other line until bottom figures have been reached, and as they understood the Alton had reduced the rate to Kansas City from $5 to $4, they simply dropped $1 below that figure. The Alton people, however, claim that they have made no such reduction, and still continue to sell tickets to Kansas City, at which figure they say they can get all the business they can handle. The Rock Island road has reduced rates to Kansas City from $7 to $5, and also claims to do a big business at that figure. The Burlington still continues to charge $7 to Kansas City, but as all the other Kansas City routes have made reductions, it will hardly hold to that figure much longer, and the prospects are that it will meet the rate made by the other roads or even go below them before many days have passed.

BUTTER MUST BE BETTER.

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—This afternoon a number of dealers in butter had a conference with the purpose of protecting the trade against adulterated butter and cheese, which are at present flooding the markets. The recent exposure of the villainous character of the compounds which are manufactured and sold as butter has greatly damaged the business and rendered some action necessary. The only feasible plan suggested, was that dealers in the legitimate article be compelled to label it under its appropriate name. The last Legislature passed a law requiring this to be done, but no steps have been taken to enforce it, and it is a dead letter. Resolutions were adopted requesting the produce exchange to take action towards enforcing obedience to the law and promising hearty cooperation. Some four hundred dollars were raised on the spot to further the object of the meeting, and an active war will be made on the adulterating traffic.

MYSTERIOUS CASE.

St. Louis, Dec. 1.—The dead body of a man was found in a cellar-way in the rear of the Hotel Barium this morning. It has since been learned that the body was that of W. J. Murphy, a Catholic priest, and among his effects are evidences showing that he formerly lived in New Orleans. It also appears that he has been in this city some time, that he was strongly addicted to drink, and the supposition is that he fell into the cellar-way while drunk, and was killed, or died of debility and exposure.

A MARSH FIRE.

MADISON, Dec. 1.—A great fire is raging northeast of this city in the marshes and timber lands. So far no estimate of damage can be obtained. The scene of destruction is about eight miles from this city.

A FUNNY IDEA.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—The Brooklyn Land Leaguers last evening appointed a committee to confer with the New York members in reference to sending Gen. B. F. Butler to Ireland to defend Parnell and other indicted members of the League.

A Prediction.

The Freeman predicts that Hon. C. G. Williams' presence at Milwaukee last Thursday and the manner in which he acquitted himself at the banquet at the Newhall House, went a long way towards making him a future United States Senator from the Badger State—Waukesha Freeman.

The Racine Journal was the first paper to bring out the name of Mr. Williams three years ago for the United States Senate. We cordially endorse what the Freeman says.—Racine Journal.

The Chicago Times says: Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure is highly endorsed by ministers, judges, physicians, surgeons, by men of literary and scholarly distinction, and by individuals in all the walks of life.

IMPORTANT MOVE.

Levi B. Carle has completed arrangements for engaging in business in Chicago.

The large wholesale grocery house of Towle & Roper, which is widely known throughout the West, and whose annual business runs up into the millions, has dissolved, and Mr. Towle, in connection with Mr. Carle, and Harry Spearman, have formed a new firm under the name of Towle, Carle & Co., and will commence business on the 1st of January next.

Mr. Towle has for twenty-one years been in business in Chicago, and is well-known to the trade, and Mr. Spearman, as many here know, is an active young man of considerable experience, and a first-class salesman.

Mr. Carle, as all know is one of Janesville's most wide-awake and successful business men, and the three will form a strong firm.

It is to be regretted that Janesville is to lose Mr. Carle, but the enterprise promises so much success, that all his well-wishers cannot but feel that he has done well in improving the opportunity. His family will remain here for the present.

POUNDING A PREACHER.

Last evening the members and friends of the First Methodist church made a happy capture of the house of their pastor, Rev. G. W. Wells, the occasion being a surprise and pound party combined.

Every corner brought a parcel, and many there were which exceeded the limit of a pound, so that the table upon which the donations were piled, fairly groined under the burden of good things. The gifts were mainly for the commissary department of the pastor's home, which was thus well stocked up for the winter.

A happy informality characterized the occasion, and all the friends were hospitably received by Mr. Wells and his family, and made to feel at home. Social chatting and music filled the hours, and a stream of friends kept coming and going until a late hour. Mr. Wells and family are heartily welcomed here, not only by those of their own church, but by the community at large. This occasion was planned sometime ago, when Mr. Wells first assumed the pastorate, but the friends very thoughtfully waited until he and his family had got settled in their new home.

Remember that Dr. V. Clarence Price is a regular, skillful, scientific, practicing physician, who will take no man's money without he can render him an equivalent benefit.

Dr. Price can be consulted at Janesville, Myers' house, on Saturday the 11th of December.
